Brescia is strategically located at short distance from Milan and Venice and at the intersection of the great European corridors connecting France to Austria (from west to east) and Germany and Central Europe to Rome (from north to south).

City of Brescia, Hinterland and Plain

BRESCIA IS LOCATED ON FLATLANDS, PROTECTED TO THE NORTH BY HILLS AT THE MEETING POINT OF THREE VALLEYS: CAMONICA VALLEY, TROMPIA VALLEY AND SABBIA VALLEY. BRESCIA IS SURROUNDED BY A VAST PROVINCE WHICH EXTENDS AS FAR AS LAKE ISEO, THE FRANCIACORTA HILLS, TO LAKE GARDA, FROM THE LOWLANDS TO THE TONALE PASS, ON THE BORDER WITH THE TRENTO REGION, WHERE THERE IS AN IMMENSE SKI HILL OFFERING 150 KM OF RUNS REACHING THROUGH THE SPLENDID SETTING OF THE ADAMELLO MOUNTAINS. BRESCIA, WITH APPROXIMATELY 200,000 INHABITANTS, IS GOING THROUGH AN IMPORTANT STAGE OF CHANGE, MARKED BY SEVERAL NEW PROJECTS – INCLUDING THE RECENTLY COMPLETED SUBWAY – AND IS LOOKING FOR A NEW IDENTITY NOT JUST AS AN INDUSTRIAL CITY BUT INDEED AS A CULTURAL AND ARTISTIC CENTRE, WITH THE RECENT UNESCO RECOGNITION AND THE ART EXHIBITS FOR WHICH THE CITY HAS BECOME KNOWN IN RECENT YEARS.

THE CITY OF BRESCIA

DISCOVER AN ART CITY

The city of Brescia, 149 metres above sea level, lies at the foot of the hills below the Pre-Alps, almost at the mouth of Trompia valley. It is bordered to the north-east by Cidneo Hill, an extension of Mount Maddalena, which rises to the east. There are very pleasant panoramic roads which climb the slopes of the hilly zone of the Ronchi amid varied almost Mediterranean vegetation. Today the population of Brescia is about two hundred thousand. It is the second most important city in Lombardy and capital of a province with a population of over a million.

Brescia combines the efficiency of a modern town with the attractions of a historic city full of art treasures. A number of improvements have been made; from setting up pedestrian areas and providing plants and benches for gardens and streets to the work carried out in the quiet residential area surrounding one of the major museum complexes in Italy: Santa Giulia - the City Museum with 12,000 sq.m. of exhibition space - which was opened to the public in 1999 and since 2011 it is inscribed on the UNESCO World Heritage List for the serial site Longobards in Italy. Places of the power (568-774 AD).

THE CASTLE

The castle is called the “Falcon of Italy” because of its position on the summit of the hill.

It is one of the largest fortified complexes in Italy with 75,000 square metres enclosed within its surrounding walls. The old Venetian-Visconti stronghold dominates the city and its well preserved buildings illustrate the evolution in military techniques that over time have rendered the defensive system impregnable and made it a perfect instrument to control the city for the various “dominators” who succeeded one another in Brescia.

PIAZZA DELLA LOGGIA

It is the most beautiful square in Brescia and was inaugurated in 1433.

It is dominated by the magnificent Renaissance Palace of the Loggia, nowadays the town hall. Its building began in 1492. The upper part was finished circa 1570 to the design of Jacopo Sansovino and Andrea Palladio. The splendid decorative sculpture that adorns the palace is in classical style. On the south side, the 15th and 16th century façades of the Monti di Pietà are worthy of note as tombstones and other pieces of Roman stonework have been set into their walls.

PIAZZA PAOLO VI

Brescia Piazza Paolo VI (formerly Piazza del Duomo).

This square, which dates back to the Middle Ages, is the heart of the city; it contains important historical buildings. The palace of Broletto, which incorporates the municipal tower and the loggia delle grida, extends along the eastern side as well as two cathedrals - the Duomo Nuovo (the New Cathedral) and the Duomo Vecchio (the Old Cathedral). The Palace of the Broletto is the oldest municipal building in the city and was the centre of political life when Brescia was a city-state.

MILLE MIGLIA

Mille Miglia was a long distance race, along roads open to traffic, held in Italy twenty four times between 1927 and 1957.

In 1977 the name Mille Miglia was inherited by the Historical Mille Miglia, a parade and competition for classic cars produced prior to 1957. The race follows a route from Brescia – Roma and back, similar to the original. 80 years of passions, emotions and traditions. Hundreds of famous champions and unknown heroes have raced the Red Arrow making epic automotive history, combining sports and traditions of Italy.

INTERNATIONAL PIANO FESTIVAL

The International Piano Festival of Brescia and Bergamo is considered one of the most important piano festivals in the world.

Established in 1964 as a homage to the great pianist Arturo Benedetti Michelangeli, born in Brescia, on the initiative of Maestro Agostino Orizio, it was immediately extended also to Bergamo.

THE WINGED VICTORY

The symbol of the city of Brescia

THE CAPITOLINE TEMPLE

The temple was built by Vespasian in 74 A.D.

The splendour of the city during the Roman era is eloquently presented by the materials from public, civic and religious buildings, such as the late Republican sanctuary over which the Capitolium was later built, private dwellings and early Christian churches.

The treasure of Santa Giulia is on show in Santa Maria in Solario, a XII century votive chapel: the great wooden cross of King Desiderius (IX century goldsmith's work, covered in jewels, rare cameos and painted glass - including the famous triple portrait from the IV century).

The Nun's Choir: a splendid frescoed chamber where the Benedictine nuns of the Santa Giulia convent took part, hidden from view, in religious functions.

The winged Victory called "The Brescia Victory" might have originally represented Venus before being transformed in Vespasian's time, when it became an imperial votive offering.

Traces of houses of Longobard period can still be seen in the nearby archaeological area. For this reason the archaeological area is included in the UNESCO World Heritage List together with the complex of San Salvatore-Santa Giulia.

THE BRESCIA PLAIN

A VERY SWEET LAND

Three rivers – the Oglio, the Chiese and the Mella – constitute the borders of the Brescia plains, lands as flat as the horizon, whose beauty is associated with its flourishing agriculture (quantified as one of the top areas in Italy according to the volume and quality of its produce). Tourism is based on the enjoyment of simple pleasures, the harmonious atmosphere of the local villages and long bicycle rides. Patrician homes and country churches are the real museums which are home to unexpected masterpieces of art and sculpture.

This is a land replete with natural and artistic resources.

In order to defend the vast area, a strategic area of passage and conquest, imposing castles and fortified villas were built here. Among the most important are Padernello Castle and Montichiari Castle.

The Brescia plain, also known locally as the “Bassa” can easily be reached and visited even by bicycle. There are unexpected environmental resources, which have developed around local and regional parks in an atmosphere tempered by the gentle flows of rivers, big forests and luxuriant countryside.

This is an area of cheese production (stracchino, Grana Padano, crescenze, taleggio and robione) as well as delicious cured meats (salami, cotechini, soppresse); interesting purchases can also be made directly from local producers. The richness of the local wine and gastronomy is also expressed in the re-evaluation of historical products such as emmer wheat or einkorn flour.
